Instagram: Defining Your Brand

Worksheet for Artists

Describe your Brand

Username
- Is your current username clean and to the point?
- Can you create similar usernames across social media platforms?

Profile Photo
- Do you want to showcase yourself, your art, both, or a logo?

Bio and Website
- List a couple of things that describe you? (Dog lover, traveler, foodie, etc.)
- Provide a link: Do you want people to visit your store? Read your blog?

Consistency
- What can people expect from your content by following you?
- What defines your aesthetic? (colors, line, movement, photo composition, etc.)

Answers

Answers and Username Ideas:

Tasks:
- Look at other successful artist profiles for example and inspiration.

BRAINSTORM:

Tasks:
- Archive posts that stray too far from your current style and aesthetic.

Created By Messy Ever After
Instagram: Defining Your Brand

Worksheet for Artists

Extraneous Post Content
- Once you define your brand, make sure to only include photos that support or elevate it.
- Do any of your posts distract from your art and brand?

Tasks:
- Archive posts that are not related to your art or your brand.
- Keep your profile curated and tidy.

Use Your Voice: Post Captions
- What topics do you like discussing and starting conversations with?
- What parts of your personality are part of your brand?
- What kind of story does your art tell?

Answers and Caption Ideas:

Interact with Followers
- Do you reply to messages and comments?
- What kind of customer service do you want to be known for?
- How do you want your followers to feel about you as a person?

Answers:

Content and Quality
- Does your profile look attractive?
- Do your photos need better lighting?
- Do you include a variety of photo compositions on your profile?
- Do you need to improve your skills?

Answers and Things to Improve:

Created By Messy Ever After